Native Boy Dies Poison

The little eight year old son of Mrs. Maggie Paul, a native widow woman living near the light plant, died about seven o'clock last Sunday after suffering for twenty-four hours from some kind of poison.

Mrs. Paul for some time past has acted as clerk at Capt. Jinks Co. store, and last Saturday afternoon her two boys eight and two years respectfully came up town and during their stay must of eat something that poisoned them for they came into Jinks store about two o'clock both of them sick. They were taken home and Dr. Dawes was called who worked with them for several hours but oldest one was beyond earthly help and the younger one is barely out of danger.

It is not known what the boys ate or where they got it, but Capt. Jinks, for whom the mother works feeling that it was more or less probably his fault, has shown his generous heart by bearing all the expenses of the funeral and other bills caused by the sad affair.

Ketchikan recently held an election to get the opinion of the people living on the property south of the incorporated town whether they wanted to come into the incorporated limits or not. The election carried by about twenty to one in favor of the annexation.

Popular Couple Are Married

To the surprise of their many friends, the news leaked out last Tuesday that Earnest P. Walker and Miss Ester Shaftstad had been quietly married on Sunday afternoon by Rev. H. P. Corser at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Webster. The happy affair had been kept a secret even to their closest friends until they started house keeping in the Leo McCormack house.

Mrs. Walker has lived in Wrangell for some time and has a host of friends, while Mr. Walker is Deputy Fish Warden for this district and has made many friends in the year and a half he has served in that capacity here.

The Sentinel joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and successful married life.

The City of Seattle left off 47 fox at this place on her trip south to be inspected by the Government officials here. The fox are from the G. M. Morrison Fox Farm at Hot Springs, Alaska, and are on their way to fox farms on Prince Edward Island. The fox are being transported in charge of G. E. Milligan. E. P. Walker inspected them and they will ship south on the Humboldt.

John Hyland Passes Away Suddenly

Mr. Bronson of the local Custom Office received a telegram from Telegraph last Wednesday morning giving the sad news that Mr. John Hyland had passed away at his home there on Tuesday evening Oct. 13, and that Mrs. Hyland had started down the river for Wrangell with the body and asked that a boat be dispatched from this place to meet the party. Mr. Bronson dispatched the Karen which left shortly before noon. Mrs. Bronson is a passenger on the Karen.

Mr. Hyland is one of the best known men of the interior country, is about 48 years of age, and has been a resident of Telegraph for many years having succeeded his father Mr. Robt. Hyland in business there in 1897. Mr. Hyland controls a chain of trading posts at McDames Creek, Dease Lake and Leiard Post besides his big store at Telegraph.

The sudden death of Mr. Hyland is a severe shock to his many friends, and he is exceptionally well known in Vancouver and Victoria and in fact every city on the coast. It is not definitely known from what trouble his death was caused but his health has been ailing for some time he having made a trip to Victoria some months ago to receive medical treatment and stated when he went through Wrangell on his way to Telegraph some time ago that he was feeling much better.

Mr. Hyland leaves a widow and two daughters the oldest about 16 years to mourn his untimely death. The daughters are attending school in San Francisco, and in all probabilities the body will be taken to that place for burial.

The Karen is expected to meet the party at the canyon and will be back today some time.

Big Steamers Stop Call Here

Seattle, Oct. 14—According to information given out by the officials of the Alaska Steamship Co. the first of the week the big ships Alameda and Mariposa will discontinue their calls at Wrangell and Skagway after November first. This is probably the last trip of the season for the Northwestern. The Jefferson and the Dolphin will be the only two boats of the company making these ports during the winter months.

Couple Married Last Saturday

At the home of Rev. Clarke last Saturday afternoon occurred a very quiet wedding Mr. Nels Linskog of this city and Mrs. Marie Olsen of Copenhagen, Denmark, being the contracting parties.

Mrs. Linskog arrived on the Dolphin that day direct from her old home in Denmark. Mr. Linskog has been a resident of this city for some time and is well known to every one. The Sentinel joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Alaskans Are Shining Marks

Alaskans are sure the shining marks for all the fakes in in the country. Not long ago a gentleman went through here selling fifty cent maps for eight dollars and fifty cents and he stung nearly every person in the town and then again last week along came another shining mark of the theatrical world who called himself the "Man of Mystery" and stung us again. Come along smotne guyes from Seattle if you are broke, we are easy and would not see you starve for the world.

Washington, Oct. 12—There is little probability that the Alaska Coal Leasing Bill will pass at the present session of Congress.

Dem. Candidate Passes Through

Hon. Chas. H. Cosgrove, Democratic candidate for the lower house of the Alaska Legislature was a passenger through on the Jefferson to Juneau last Tuesday afternoon.

While the boat was in port Mr. Cosgrove put in the time meeting many friend and making new ones. Mr. Cosgrove is a prominent lawyer of Ketchikan where he has resided for several years having been in Alaska for about 15 years, and is very well known all over the territory.

One of the things that makes Mr. Cosgrove well known in Wrangell is the fact that he was one of the officers that installed the local order of Red Men Lodge. Mr. Cosgrove stated that he would be in Juneau for some time and that he would make it a point to stop off at Wrangell on his way back to his home in Ketchikan.

Seattle, Oct. 14—The Arctic Club of this city is planning on a great time for the returning Alaskans on November first at the club rooms.

Two new houses are going up in Wrangell this week, one being built for J. Hogstrom on his lot back of the print shop and the other being built for Wm. Tammera on the lot below the school house.

Big Masqueade Hallowe'en Eve.

The Moose Orchestra are advertising their second appearance before the dancing public of Wrangell by giving a big Masquerade Ball on Hallowe'en night, Oct. 31.

The Moose Orchestra gave a dance recently at Red Mens Hall and also furnished the music for the Civic Improvement Club dance at the Wrangell Hotel last Friday evening, so their class as music furnishers has been established, but for the coming dance they have some new numbers that are certainly something great and without a doubt the music at the coming dance will be the best ever in the town. Among the new pieces are "Over The Alpine Mountains", "When Its Moonlight On The Alamo", "When You Wore a Tulip and I Wore a Big Red Rose" and "Good-Bye, I'm Goin' To Carolina". All of these are new and the very latest in the two step line, so you will miss the time of your life if you dont attend the dance.

The admissions will be for Gentlemen Mask $1.00, for Gentlemen not masked 50c, for Ladies masked 50c, not masked 25c and children 25c.

Mr. S Wallace, brother of Marshal Wallace arrived on one of the last boats from the south and will make his future home in Wrangell.

Hon. James Wickersham

Progressive Democratic candidate for Delegate from Alaska.

The Wrangell Chamber of Commerce has tried for two nights in the past week and at both meetings only five of the business representatives of the city turned out and the same five both times. This is not as it should be. The Chamber of Commerce is one of the institutions that it takes in any place to make a success of any outside boosting for our city that can be done, without this function as a representation of the combined forces of the city there would be slim chance of getting several of the proposed improvements which Wrangell and this vicinity needs, as for instance the new trail built by the Forest Department up the Stikine River this summer was obtained only through the medium of the Chamber of Commerce and the worthy committee appointed who certainly carried their plans through and their labor was rewarded by the trail, and another is the proposed Dry Strait Channel, which is something that will mean thousands of dollars to Wrangell and a great convenience to all of Alaska, which will never be obtained unless every member of the Chamber makes it a point to work a little with the Chamber for it. The Chamber will hold another meeting in the near future which will be advertised and let every man in the city who has the interests of Wrangell at heart turn out and lets get busy and have a real Chamber of Commerce with every member booting for it and for Wrangell. At the last meeting the five members present unofficially made up an advertisement of Wrangell which will be inserted in the coming number of the Pacific Fishman setting forth the prospects of Wrangell and surrounding countries.

The reason some men don't climb the ladder of success is because they want to be carried up in an elevator.

S. E. Alaska Fishermen's Association HEADQUARTERS

September 23rd, 1914

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am asking the people of Alaska to elect me as a representative in their next Legislature for the following reasons:

1 It is the desire of the majority of the women of Alaska that all women may be granted the privilege, and realize the importance, of their assuming their share of every responsibility and every public duty, and have the opportunity of working with men for the advancement and good of our country; for only by mutual discussion, consideration and co-operation can the wisest conclusions be reached in all matters pertaining to the welfare, of men, women and children, and the best way to accomplish this, is for the men and women of Alaska to elect women as part of their representatives in the Alaska Legislature.

2 That I may more effectively continue the work I have been doing for the past year and a half as Secretary of the Ketchikan Division of the S. E. Alaska Fishermen's Association. My husband, who is Secretary-Treasurer of the whole Association, has been a fisherman and resident of Alaska for many years, and always an earnest leader and worker for the fishermen to obtain their rights. He was also Secretary of their former union, Alaska Local No. 2, United Fishermen of the Pacific. As his subordinate official and that of our Executive Board, and as a member of our Association, whose aim is to advance the interests of all the fishermen of Alaska, and of all business dependent upon the prosperity of the fishermen, my work in the Alaska Legislature (if elected) will be faithful, intelligent and energetic.

3 My influence and votes in the Alaska Legislature (if elected) for the workers of Alaska in all other occupations will be to maintain and defend their rights and to secure them a square deal in every thing.

4 My attitude towards capital is to compel it to graht labor its fair and just share of what it earns and to welcome and support its investment in legitimate enterprises in our country.

Will you favor me with your support?

I announce myself as an independent candidate for the Alaska House of Representatives on the following platform:

- 1 Complete enfranchisement of women;
- 2 Abolishment of fishtraps in Alaskan waters;
- 3 Legislation obliging a husband to support his wife and children;
- 4 The passage of a law requirng a residence of six months for non-resident fishermen to qualify for the right to fish in Alaskan waters;
- 5 Legislation making S. E. Alaska a separate territory;
- 6 A law forbidding Government employees to engage in other business under penalty of removal, and that all be put on salaries;
- 7 A law providing for the Australian ballot system in Alaska;

MARY A. C. GIBSON
(Mrs. Nels. Gibson)

Ketchikan will have another electric company as the city council recently granted a franchise to The Chesney Electric Company for a period of twenty five years.

Real Campaign Start Soon

Juneau, Oct. 14.—The campaign for the Non-Partisan Legislative Ticket opens on Monday, October 19th. Headquarters have been opened in Juneau, with the organization of a publicity bureau, of which L. A. Green is in charge. Advances indicate that the Daily Dispatch of Juneau, Daily Alaskan of Skagway, Daily Miner of Ketchikan, Weekly News of Douglas and Weekly Sentinel of Wrangell will support the Non-Partisan Legislative Ticket.

R. A. Gunnison, Manager of the Non-Partisan Campaign, has issued the following statement to the voters of the First Division:

"The Non-Partisan convention, which convened at Juneau, on September 3rd, was organized with a view of securing representation from every important precinct in the First Judicial Division of Alaska, and for the adoption of a platform and the nomination of candidates for the second Territorial Legislature which will give every section and industry of the Division equal and efficient representation.

"Legislation should be non-partisan; the laws to be passed by the Territorial Legislature, which meets in Juneau next March, should be enacted in the interest of the growth of good government and the development of the resources of Alaska, and not in a partisan spirit for the advantage of a few politicians. The tendency of all recent legislation, state and national, favors non-partisan development. The primary election law, the Australian ballot system, and the initiative and referendum are all direct efforts by the people to protect themselves and their interests from the political boss. The day has come when the people in their collective might intend to conduct the public business without boss rule, and non-partisan combination is the method by which it is to be done. The boss must go, and the purpose of non-partisan effort now is to so arrange the public business that the people can formulate their best thought into law through a direct appeal to the people who no longer have confidence in the boss, the secret caucus or a corporative-controlled convention of hand-picked delegates. The Non-Partisan ticket is an appeal to the people in the First Division - to every citizen in his or her individual right - to aid in formulating the wishes of the people and to secure their enactment into law without reference to local appointees, to local bosses or non-residents' influence.

"In presenting this platform and legislative ticket for the consideration of the voters of the First Division at the November election, an earnest appeal is made for every good citizen to actively support and assist in electing the Non-Partisan ticket so that the platform presented can be carried out by the enactment of legislation."

By the looks of notices we observed in a conspicuous place in the mess room on the steamer City of Seattle there must be some Germans and French or English among the crew. The notice reads in large lettering

Petersburg Is Building City

Dr. Shurick, the Editor, Steve Grant and Capt. Clark made a trip over to Petersburg on the good ship Duckland last Monday. At Petersburg we found a thriving little city with every person over there certainly boosting for Petersburg. The city has made many improvements in the past year, many new building having been completed and several under way. The A.-B. Lodge has just finished a fine large hall which they are planning on formally opening opening with a big dance on hallowe'en eve, the Petersburg Bank has just finished a fine bank building, Dr. Pryor has in the course of construction a fine two story concrete business block, the Wester Hotel is completing a new annex, and the city is building a good water system, all of which speak well for the future of the fishing metropolis on Wrangell Narrows.

A Whiffy Thief.
Munich has been visited by a thief with a sense of humor. Several days ago all the clocks in the ministry of railways came to a standstill. The central or "master clock," which controls all the others, had been stolen. In its place was a sheet of paper with the words "Time was made for Munich."
